2. Answer them pleasantly.

3. They will ask you on what bundle you need

4. Pick one of their services, like VDS-10 It's excessive; I think VDS-3 or VDS-4 if possible

5. Attempt with different servers on the off chance that you need

6. They will likewise request an account, simply make it with fake data (fake info)

7. They will also get some information about the OS, pick a Debian 9 since Windows commits to have an OS running and it's a waste of resources

8. You will get your server info in your email

Method 7:

First, open the following Link and Sign Up to get your $10 credit.

(For non-ref interface - > <https://www.digitalocean.com/>[This does not give you $10 credit])

While filling your billing details, click on "Have a Promo Code?" at the bottom of the page.

Enter any of the Promo codes to get additional credit:

DOPRODUCT15 (Get $15 FREE)

From the first step, you will get your first $10 credit, and by utilizing extra promotion codes, you can get up to $35 of all-out credits.

Note: Some codes give more credit on higher plans.

Note: If your code doesn't work at that point open a ticket and your issue ought to be solved.

For Creditcard - > Utilize a VCC with low an incentive inside (For check), the rest you can utilize fakenamgenerator to fill in the details.

Multi-month VPS = $5

So you'll get 5 months VPS
